From Tuesday June 26. to Saturday June 30. 1716.

AT the Court at St. James's, June the 25th, 1716.

His Majesty in Council was this Day pleased to appoint John Nicholson, Esq; Sheriff for the County of Cumberland.

Westminster, June 26. This Day His Majesty came to the House of Peers, and being in His Royal Robes seated on the Throne, with the usual Solemnity, Sir William Oldes, Gentleman-Usher of the Black-Rod, was sent with a Message from His Majesty to the House of Commons, commanding their Attendance in the House of Peers; the Commons being come thither accordingly, His Majesty was pleased to give the Royal Assent to

An Act to continue the Duties for encouraging the Coinage of Money, and to charge the Duties on Senna as a Medicinal Drug; and for the appropriating several Supplies granted to His Majesty.

An Act for appointing Commissioners to enquire of the Estates of certain Traytors, and of Popish Recusants, and of Estates given to superstitious Uses, in order to raise Money out of them severally for the Use of the Publick.

An Act for the continuing the Duty of Two Pennies Scots, or one Sixth of a Penny Sterling, on every Pint of Ale and Beer that shall be vended or sold within the City of Glascow, and Privileges thereof, for the Benefit of the said City.

An Act to oblige Papists to Register their Names and real Estates.

An Act for repealing so much of the Act of the Twelfth and Thirteenth Years of the Reign of King William the Third, intituled, An Act for the further Limitation of the Crown, and better securing the Rights and Liberties of the Subject, as enacts, That no Person who should come to the Possession of the Crown, shall go out of the Dominions of England, Scotland, or Ireland, without Consent of Parliament.

An Act for the more effectual securing the Peace of the Highlands in Scotland.

An Act to prevent the Mischiefs by manufacturing Leaves, or other Things, to resemble Tobacco, and the Abuses in making and mixing of Snuff.

An Act for the more effectual and exemplary Punishment of such Persons as shall seduce Soldiers to desert, or who being Papists shall inlist themselves in His Majesty's Service, in Great Britain or Ireland, or in the Islands of Jersey or Guernsey.

An Act for holding the Assize for the County of Cornwall, at a convenient Place within the said County.

An Act to encourage the planting of Timber Trees, Fruit Trees, and other Trees for Ornament, Shelter or Profit, and for the better Preservation of the same; and for the preventing the burning of Woods.

An Act for the Attainder of Thomas Forster, Junior, Esq; and William Mackintosh, Esq; (commonly called Brigadier Mackintosh) of High-Treason.

An Act to disable any Person from being chose a Member of, or from sitting and voting in the House of Commons, who has any Pension for any Number of Years from the Crown.

An Act for making the Laws for repairing the Highways more effectual.

Act for the better regulating Hackney Coaches, Carts, Drays, Carrs and Waggons within the Cities of London and Westminster, and the weekly Bills of Mortality, and for preventing Mischiefs occasioned by the Drivers riding upon such Carts, Drays, Carrs and Waggons.

An Act to revive and continue An Act of the Eighth and Ninth Years of the Reign of his late Majesty King William, for Repair of the Peers of Bridlington, alias Burlington, in the East Riding of the County of York.

And to several private Bills.

After which His Majesty was pleased to make the following most gracious Speech.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I Cannot put an End to this Session, without expressing to you my Satisfaction in the Proceedings of this Parliament. The wholesome and necessary Laws which have been passed with so much Steadiness, Resolution and Unanimity, will (I trust in God) answer those good Ends which it is evident you have had in View, by defeating the Designs, and reducing the Spirit of our Enemies; by encouraging our Friends, and raising the Credit and Reputation of the Nation abroad to such a Degree, as that I may reasonably expect the Fruits of a settled Government, especially being supported by a Parliament zealous for the Prosperity of their Country, and the Protestant Interest of Europe.

I am

(Price Three Half-Pence.)

I am confident, my Conduct hitherto in ſuppreſſing the Rebellion, and puniſhing thoſe concerned in it, has been ſuch as demonſtrates, that I deſire rather to leſſen their Numbers by reclaiming them, than by making Examples; but I am ſorry to find, that the numerous Inſtances of Mercy which I have ſhewn, have had no other Effect, than to encourage the Faction of the Pretender, to renew their Inſults upon my Authority and the Laws of the Kingdom; and even to affect, with the greateſt Inſolence, to diſtinguiſh themſelves from my good and faithful Subjects; acting with ſuch Folly and Madneſs, as if they intended to convince the World, that they are not to be reduced to Quiet and Submiſſion to my Government, by ſuch gentle Methods as are moſt agreeable to my own Inclinations.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I return you, in particular, my Thanks for the Supplies you have given, which although they fall ſhort of the Sums you found neceſſary, and have voted for the Service of the whole Year; yet by the Encouragement you have given to make them effectual, may, I hope, be ſo managed, as to carry on the Current Service till another Seſſion of Parliament.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I am very ſenſible, there are Matters of great Conſequence ſtill depending before you, but as they have hitherto been poſtponed out of abſolute neceſſity, by intervening Affairs of a more preſſing Nature, and of the moſt immediate Concern to the Peace and Safety of the Nation; I thought the Seaſon of the Year required I ſhould defer your further Proceedings till the next Seſſion, rather than you ſhould be detained out of your reſpective Countries longer than could be conſiſtent with your private Concerns.

I cannot doubt, that during this Receſs you will all uſe your beſt Endeavours to preſerve the Peace of the Kingdom, and to diſcourage and ſuppreſs all manner of Diſorders; ſince as the firſt Scene of the late Rebellion was opened and uſhered in by Tumults and Riots, ſo you may be aſſured, upon what Pretence ſoever they are raiſed, they can have no other Tendency but to ſupport the Spirit of a Faction, reſtleſs and unwearied in their Endeavours to renew the Rebellion, and to ſubvert the Religion, Laws and Liberties of their Country.

I deſign to make Uſe of the approaching Receſs to viſit my Dominions in Germany, and to provide for the Peace and Security of the Kingdom, during my Abſence, by conſtituting my beloved Son, the Prince of Wales, Guardian of the Realm, and my Lieutenant within the ſame.

And afterwards, the Lord Chancellor, by His Majeſty's Command, ſaid,

My Lords and Gentlemen,

It is His Majeſty's Royal Pleaſure, that this Parliament be prorogued to Tueſday the 7th Day of Auguſt next; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to meet here, on Tueſday the 7th Day of Auguſt next.

Dublin, June 20. This Day the Parliament of this Kingdom was prorogued to the 25th of Auguſt next: After the Lords Juſtices had given the Royal Aſſent to ſeveral Bills, and made the following Speech to both Houſes.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

THO' the Seſſion has by many unavoidable Accidents been protracted to an unuſual Length, you cannot but think your Time well imployed, having reaped the Advantage of the many good Laws his Majeſty has been pleaſed to give you, in which Number the Act for Making the Militia more uſeful, is a ſingular Inſtance of the great Confidence His Majeſty places in the Fidelity and Good Affection of his Loyal Subjects of Ireland, and will greatly contribute to the Security of the Proteſtant Intereſt of this Kingdom.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

We are commanded by His Majeſty, to return you Thanks for the Supplies you have ſo chearfully granted for his Service, and your own Defence, which we aſſure you, will be apply'd with the utmoſt Frugality to the Purpoſes for which they were given.

We muſt likewiſe thankfully acknowledge the ſeveral Marks of Confidence you have placed in us, more particularly your ſeaſonable and unprecedented Vote of Credit, which will remain a memorable Proof of your unbounded Zeal for His Majeſty's Service, and an Obligation upon us to continue our beſt Endeavours for your Proſperity.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

The Seaſon of the Year is now far advanced, and it is Time you ſhould return to your ſeveral Countries, where you will take Care in your reſpective Stations, to ſee the Laws duly put in Execution for the Support of our excellent Conſtitution both in Church and State. We ſhall only recommend to you, the Continuance of that Unanimity and Reſolution which have hitherto preſerved you in perfect Tranquility, and will beſt enable you to defeat the future Deſigns of your open and ſecret Enemies.

It is a great Pleaſure to us, to ſee this Seſſion conclude as it began, with all poſſible Marks of Loyalty and Good Affection to His Majeſty; and as we have conſtantly repreſented the Merit of ſo good a People in a juſt Light, to the Beſt of Princes, ſo we have His Majeſty's Commands to aſſure you of his perfect Satisfaction in your Dutiful Behaviour.

St. James's, June 28.

To the King's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Archbiſhop, Dean and Chapter of the Metropolitical Church of Canterbury, and of the reſt of the Clergy of that Dioceſs.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

HAving with Hearts full of Joy and Gratitude, returned our moſt humble and hearty Thanks to Almighty God for his Deliverance of your Sacred Majeſty

Majeſty and your Kingdoms from the great Peril of the late unnatural Rebellion; we do, in the next Place, beg Leave to approach your Royal Perſon with our moſt ſincere and dutiful Congratulations of a Bleſſing in which we all of us ſo highly partake, and by which we hope your Majeſty's Throne, and with that the future Peace of our Country, and the Security of our Religion and Liberties, are the more firmly eſtabliſhed.

That thoſe of the Church of Rome, who by Principle are Enemies to your Majeſty's Government, and devoted to the Service of the Pretender to your Throne, ſhould by all Means endeavour to Place him in it, is not be wondred: Their Intereſt, and their Religion, both require it of them.

That ſuch as being led away with miſtaken Notions of our Conſtitution, think themſelves obliged in Conſcience to diſclaim your Majeſty's juſt and lawful Right to the Imperial Crown of this Realm, and to uſe their utmoſt Endeavours to place it upon the Head of your Enemy; though otherwiſe profeſſing the ſame Religion with our ſelves, ſhould enter into thoſe Meaſures which their erroneous Conſcience perſwades them it is their Duty to purſue, is indeed a Matter of melancholly Conſideration; but yet the Error they are under, and the Principles they act upon, do naturally account for it.

But that any of the Reformed Church of England who have acknowledged your Majeſty's Right, and ſworn Allegiance to your Royal Perſon, and obliged themſelves to maintain the Succeſſion in the Proteſtant Line of your Family, ſhould nevertheleſs, in Contradiction to all theſe ſolemn Engagements, join with Papiſts and Nonjurors to ſubvert your Majeſty's Government, and with that to overthrow all our Sacred and Civil Rights and Liberties, is ſuch a prodigious Inſtance of Folly and Impiety, that we want Words to expreſs our Deteſtation of it.

Bleſſed be God, who has diſappointed their wicked and trayterous Deſigns, and preſerved your Sacred Perſon and Authority from the Deſtruction they had intended againſt both! May the ſame good Providence ever continue to watch over your Majeſty, and to defend you againſt all their wicked Devices! This, as it is our Intereſt as well as Duty to pray for, ſo we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that it ſhall be the conſtant Subject of our Addreſſes to the Throne of Grace; and that we will all of us, in our ſeveral Places and Stations endeavour, both by our Doctrine and good Example, to convince thoſe who are committed to our Charge, that as we may juſtly expect the greateſt Bleſſings of Peace and Security under your Majeſty's moſt auſpicious Government; ſo ſhould any ſuch Change be ever accompliſhed (which God forbid) as your Enemies deſire, nothing but utter Ruin and Deſolation can follow to our Church, our Country, our ſelves, and our Poſterity for ever.

From which ſad Calamity that God may graciouſly preſerve us, by ſupporting your Majeſty and your Royal Family, in the perpetual Poſſeſſion of that Crown which he has, in Mercy to theſe Nations, placed upon your Royal Head, is the hearty Prayer of,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,
Your Majeſty's moſt faithful
And loyal and dutiful Subjects.

The following Addreſſes have alſo been preſented to His Majeſty.

An humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Magiſtrates, Merchants, Miniſter, and other the Principal Inhabitants of Clifton Dartmouth Hardneſs in the County of Devon. Preſented to His Majeſty by Joſeph Herne, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Viſcount Townſhend, one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State.

An humble Addreſs of the Lord Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriffs, Four and Twenty, and Commons of the City of York in Common-Council aſſembled, Preſented to His Majeſty by Tobias Jenkyns, Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid City, introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Burlington Lord Lieutenant of the Weſt-Riding of the County of York, and City and Aincitty of the ſame.

An humble Addreſs of the Preſident and Council of the Iſland of Mountſerat, having been tranſmitted hither, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Honourable James Stanhope, Eſq; one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State.

An humble Addreſs of the Repreſentatives of the Inhabitants of South-Carolina in America: Preſented to His Majeſty by Joſeph Boone and Richard Beresford, Eſqrs. Agents for the Province of South-Carolina, introduced by the Right Honourable James Stanhope Eſq; One of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State.

All which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Ratisbon, June 25. On the 16th Inſtant the Emperour's Ratification of the Concluſion concerning Bon, Liege, &c. was communicated to the Dyet; wherein his Imperial Majeſty acquainted them, that he had made the neceſſary Repreſentations as they deſired, both to the Elector of Cologne and the States General, for putting an End to thoſe Diſputes in an amicable Manner. On the 18th the Dyet agreed upon a Concluſion for an Aid againſt the Turks, in Conſideration of the ſeveral dangerous Circumſtances ſet forth by the Imperial Decree of the 19th of March, and of the vaſt Expence which would fall much too heavy to be furniſhed out of the Emperour's own private Revenues: They therefore reſolve to aſſiſt him immediately with Men or Money, by way of a Free-Gift, from which no one ſhould excuſe himſelf, for the better oppoſing the common Hereditary Enemy of the Chriſtian Name: But as to the Nature and Quantity of theſe Succours in particular, and where they are to be delivered, they promiſe to come to a further Reſolution aſſoon as poſſible. They take this Occaſion to make a Compliment to his Imperial Majeſty, on his continual Care of the Publick Security. General Roth, Governour of Fort Kehl, has written a Letter to the Dyet, dated the 15th Inſtant, to acquaint them that the Waters of the Rhine being now extreamly ſwelled by the melting of the Snow in the Mountains of Switzerland, had carried away the greateſt Part of the Iſland which covered the Hornwork, and laid the main Sluice intirely under Water, from whence there was Reaſon to fear the Foundations would be quite torn up; and ſhould the little Earth yet remaining of the Iſland be waſhed away, the Hornwork itſelf could not be ſaved: He therefore ſollicits again for Money for the Repairs before it be too late.

Vienna, June 25. Advices from the Frontiers and along the Save generally agree, that the War had been publiſhed in all the Towns and Villages by a Turkiſh Officer called Telar, and the People encouraged by the hopes of the Forces coming with the Sultan and the Grand Vizier; that however all, both Chriſtians and Turks, had been ordered to take Arms, and three Men in five to be ready for the Field; the chief Merchants, and others, were to furniſh ten or twelve Men each. The Camp which the Turks were forming on the River Vervas, was not yet 10000 Men, under the Command of the Maroſch Baſſa; but the Baſſa of Boſnia was expected at Bantaluka with a farther Reinforcement of Troops; thoſe which had been lately aſſembled at Seraglio and Traunitz, were marched to the Frontiers towards Liono, on Notice that the Venetian Troops were drawing together in thoſe Quarters, and committed great Diſorders. The Turks unanimouſly confirm, that the greateſt Part of their Forces were in Motion towards Belgrade, but do not mention a Word of the Siege of Zadar. They write from Peterwaradin, that according to the Advices from Belgrade, the Grand Vizier was marching thither with his Army; and that the Aga of the Janiſaries was already at Niſſa with about 30000 Men, where the Grand Vizier was expected, and the Army was to have their general Rendezvous.

Hague, July 3. On the 30th of laſt Month the Lord Polwarth ſet out from hence for Utrecht, whence he will proceed to Hanover, and 'tis ſaid will ſhortly go from thence to Copenhagen and Berlin. The Princeſs Dowager of Friſeland is arrived here with the young Prince her Son. On the 1ſt Inſtant the Deputies of the States General had a long Conference with Baron Heems, the Imperial Miniſter; Yeſterday they had a Conference with the Marquis de Chateauneuf, Ambaſſador of France, and another to Day with Mr. Horatio Walpole, his Britannick Majeſty's Miniſter.

St. James's, June 29. His Majeſty has been pleaſed to create His Royal Highneſs Erneſt Auguſtus, Duke of Brunſwick-Lunenburgh, and Biſhop of Osnabrug, His Majeſty's Brother, Duke of York and of Albany in Great Britain, and Earl of Ulſter in Ireland.

On the 22d Inſtant His Majeſty was pleaſed to inveſt the Right Honourable the Earl of Southerland and the Lord Cadogan, with the moſt antient and moſt noble Order of the Thiſtle, all the Knights Brethren of that Order, who were in Town, being preſent.

The Body of Dutch Forces, which came over in the Time of the late Rebellion, are all embarked at ſeveral Ports, in order to return to Holland.

Admiralty-Office, June 23. 1716.

A Letter having been ſent by the Penny-Poſt to the Right Honourable the Earl of Orford, dated the 7th Inſtant, and ſigned by a Perſon, the two firſt Letters of whoſe Name are G. F. informing his Lordſhip of Diſaffection and evil Practices in an Officer of the Navy; this is to give Notice, that if the ſaid Perſon will attend the Lords Commiſſioners of the Admiralty at this Office, and make out what he alledges, he ſhall receive due Encouragement and Protection.

Theſe are to give Notice, that the Poſt will go every Night (Sundays excepted) from London to Tunbridge-Wells, and from Tunbridge-Wells to London, from Tueſday the 3d of July next incluſive, during the Summer Seaſon, as uſual.

The Commiſſioners for Victualling His Majeſty's Navy give Notice, that on Wedneſday the 25th of July next, in the Forenoon, they will be ready to receive Propoſals in writing ſealed up, at their Office on Tower-hill, from all ſuch Perſons as are willing to ſerve His Majeſty's Navy with Butter, Suffolk and Cheſhire Cheeſe for the Year enſuing, to end at Michaelmas, 1717.

The Directors of the Royal Hoſpital for Seamen at Greenwich, do hereby give Notice, That ſuch Perſons who are willing to ſerve the ſaid Hoſpital with Grey Stock and Rubbing Stock Bricks, and alſo with the beſt hard burnt Place Bricks (all that are ſamel, or under under burnt, to be excluded) and delivered at the Wharf there, may give in their Propoſals to them ſealed up, on Saturday the 7th of July, at 10 of the Clock, at their Meeting in the ſaid Hoſpital.

The Court of Directors of the united Company of Merchants of England trading to the Eaſt-Indies, do hereby give Notice, that they ſhall be ready upon the 30th of September next, to pay off the Principal and Intereſt of all ſuch Bonds as they owe at ſix per Cent. Intereſt; unleſs the Perſons concerned will be content to accept of five per Cent. per Annum Intereſt for the ſame, at which Rate the Company will continue the old, or give them new Bonds.

The Committee for letting the Bridge-Houſe Lands give Notice, That they intend to lett by Leaſe three Front Meſſuages, with the Gardens thereto belonging, and four ſmall Tenements backwards, ſituate in Blackman-Street in the Pariſh of St. George in Southwark in the County of Surry, in the ſeveral Poſſeſſions of Jeffery Funge, John Holmes, Wm. Bridger, Jane Farrington, Widow Smyth, Samuel Sexton and Elizabeth Symonds; and the ſaid Committee will ſit in the Council-Chamber of the Guildhall, London, on Wedneſday the 4th of July next, at 4 in the Afternoon, in order to receive Propoſals for the Premiſes ſeverally; of which more particular Information may be had at the Comptrollers Office in the Bridge-Houſe, Southwark.
